

Retail Manager

We are launching a lifestyle collection, comprising clothes, prints, fabrics, flowers, furniture and beautiful things for home and body, all developed by Thyme's founder Caryn Hibbert, to be sold in our shop, here at Thyme.

We are looking for a full time Retail Manager to join the team to nurture, develop and sell. The role requires someone who understands and shares our ethos for sustainability, responsibly and ethically sourced products whilst having a creative aesthetic and commercial understanding for retail in this beautiful, natural and growing business.

You must have:

- previous retail experience or a relevant equivalent within a similar luxury background
- proven commerciality and understanding of epos systems, ordering and stock control
- passion for lifestyle industry, home or garden
- Self-training and self-motivational attitude
- Strong interpersonal and collaborative skills, with excellent written and spoken English
- Natural rapport-building, maintenance and development of customer relationships
- Mindful communication and consistent approachability
- Immaculate self-presentation
- Flair & imagination

What we offer:

- The opportunity to set up a retail from scratch in collaboration with the founder of Thyme and other experienced buyers and suppliers. To create systems and process from the start.
- To be part of a growing team in an industry leading business
- Training and development within the Company
- A stunning environment in which to work
- Great pay and working hours
- 28 days holiday and company pension
- Generous discounts within the business

If this sounds like the role for you, please email your CV and a covering letter to recruitment@thyme.co.uk. Please state why you would like to work for Thyme and what your experience could bring to the role.
